

STALLED JEEP HIT BY TRAIN; ARREST DRIVER

John R. Miller, 29, of Route 1, New Lenox, was arrested Tuesday by officers Donald Ryan and Harold Pederson, on a charge of operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. Miller was driving in his jeep truck north on Center street, Joliet, when he hit a gate standard of the Rock Island railroad. His jeep truck stalled in the middle of the Center street railroad crossing.

He attempted to push the vehicle across the tracks when he noticed a northbound freight approaching from around the bend. He jumped out of the way and escaped with minor scratches, but the freight train hit the jeep and carried it approximately 100 yards.

As another northbound train was due within a few minutes, police allowed the train crew to continue on with the freight and informed them to complete their report within 48 hours at the police station. The jeep was towed away.

Railroad officials said there is a 15 mile per hour speed limit on the railroad bridge over the deep waterway. The police officers said that Miller, who was proceeding north on Center street at a high rate of speed, left skid marks of 129 feet before striking the gate. Tire marks indicated that he backed up the jeep and then started across the north mainline when the jeep stalled. Miller was released later Tuesday morning on $2,000 bond, to appear in court Nov. 27 to face the charge.

T. B. Christmas Seals Are Call For Help

Marking the 50th anniversary of Christmas Seals, letters were mailed out to thousands of Will County families this week by the Will County Tuberculosis association.

The letters contained allotments of seals and requested the recipients to buy as many as possible in order to finance the continue campaign to wipe out tuberculosis in the United States. Funds raised in the annual seal sale are used for education, research, rehabilitation, and casing, with most of the amount raised in Will county remaining here.

Robert Matthews of Joliet, chairman of the 1954 Seal Sale, and Dr. Gordon Richards of Wilmington, president of the TB association, both expressed confidence in the success of the 50th anniversary campaign.

"Alto great strides have been made in the half-century since Einar Holboell, the Danish postal clerk, conceived the idea for Christmas Seals, there is still much remaining to be done," said Dr. Richards. "Tuberculosis is still definite health threat, but the progress that has been made in treatment and control encourages us to believe that the disease may eventually be eliminated almost entirely if we continue the fight on a vigorous scale."

This year's seals were designed by a Danish artist, Jorgen Hansen, and the decoration was suggested by the traditional Christmas Eve celebration of Denmark, in which families join hands and dance around the Christmas tree singing carols. Assisting with the drive in Frankfort township is Mrs. Margaret Semmler; New Lenox township, Mrs. A. D. Miller; stuffing envelopes, Frankfort and Marley Women's clubs and two local girl scout troops folded seals.

Report On Year's Activities At Community Center

The annual meeting of the Community Center Foundation, Southwest highway at 127th st., Palos Park, was held Sunday, Nov. 7. Presiding over the meeting was Judge Leslie Salter, of Flossmoor. A new member was elected to the board of directors of the foundation, Mrs. Laura Kerr of Chicago.

Reports of the many foundation activities during the year included mention of night school classes, weddings, baptisms, retreats and the Foundation Farm camp. During the year some 179 groups from churches, community centers, colleges, high schools and service organizations were guests of the Foundation.

More than 120 people were enrolled in one or more of the night school classes offered. A summer class in clay arts drew 25 youngsters aged 9 to 13. The summer camp program was enjoyed by 83 children. In late spring about 650 children from 22 city schools visited the Foundation.

The Rev. Paul T. Sanders extended his profound gratitude to the 60 people attending the annual meeting and to the many others in the Palos-Orland area who made the Foundation year a success.

'Now Is The Time' To Help Frankfort Scrap-Paper Drive

Paper and rags were gleefully gathered last Saturday afternoon by several members of the Frankfort Community band. Those helping with this pickup were Nancy Heisner, Tommy Trump, Janette Sievert, Randy Smith and Mrs. Guzik.

Because more paper and rags are urgently needed, another pickup date has been set for this Saturday, Nov. 20. The Pickup Squad will start at 1 p.m., travelling up and down each street in Frankfort hoping residents will have bundles of paper and rags placed along the streets or roads for them to pickup. Or people may call Frankfort 2293 or deliver their material to 240 Center road in Frankfort. They will appreciate everything the local people will do in this respect for them.

Also, the scrap iron drive which the band has been conducting, will end this Saturday. They ask those who have any kind of metal that is no value to them, to donate such to this cause. This is the last chance to get rid of unwanted junk and help a progressive children's organization. They request such junk be taken to the place allocated for this purpose on Kansas street, across from the Sangmeister Electric store, where the sign, "Band Parents Scrap Pile" is posted. If there are any who cannot take their scrap there, by calling Frankfort 2293 at any time, someone from the band will pick it up in a truck loaned by Robert Trump for this purpose.

All this scrap metal, paper and rags will be sold to help finance the band's expenses.

LIONS REPORT ON COMMUNITY CHEST FUND

The Community Chest campaign which was sponsored by the Lions, has been completed with $464.61 collected. This is somewhat better than last year when $397.00 was collected. Unfortunately two of the volunteer workers became ill and failed to canvass their assigned areas until too late for others to take over. As a result a number of families were not called upon and the Community fund suffered thereby and the total raised in Mokena was lower than it should have been.

A large number of families called upon did not wish to subscribe to the local campaign as they had contributed in Chicago where they are employed. It is hoped that in future campaigns our commuters will save their contributions for their home community.

The Mokena Lions club wishes to thank the contributors and especially the volunteer workers and the organizations they represented for the fine job that was done. Herewith is a list of workers, their organizations and the amounts each collected:

Mesdames Albert Cappel, PTA, $20.00; Robert Gilmore, Immanuel Lutheran Aid, $35.50; George Bills, $38.11; Fred Lehmann, $20.00, both representing the Girl Scouts; Floyd Williams, VFW Auxiliary, $30.00; Robert DeForest, $44.00, Edward Bruesser, $5.00 and Ed Yunker, $22.20 representing the St. John's Women's Guild; Chas. Hostert, $20.00; Robert Olson-Frank, $8.00; J. Halla, $12.35; Albert Kuchenbecker, $10.00 all from Sunny Acres.

The following men from the Lions Club and the amounts collected are: William Blaha, $15.25; Albert Janner, $35.50; Lyman Teague-Henry Shevlin, $13.00; Harold Clarke, $12.00 and Arthur Omland, for Boy Scouts, $20.50. The Mokena Businessmen's association generously gave $100 and one individual donation of 1.00 was received making a total of $464.61.

The Lions express regrets to those whom they missed and to whom they suggest that a donation to the Joliet-Will County Community Chest will be accepted, or call Fred Lehmann to take care of it.

St. Mary's To Hold "Feather Party"

A benefit for St. Mary's school building fund will be held Saturday, Nov. 20 at 195th street and Wolf road, Mokena.

Father Cecil Koop, O.F.M., pastor of St. Mary's church, promises a good time to all who aid this worthy cause.

CARD PARTY
The Mokena VFW William Post Auxiliary will sponsor a card party in their hall Friday evening, Nov. 19 starting at 8:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Dorothea Roesener, Edna Spiess, Patricia Larson, Lydia Muller and Pat Zugenbuehler.

BIG BALLOONS FEATURED FOR YULE PARADE

Children from the ages of three to 73 are expected to line the sidewalks of downtown Joliet by the tens-of-thousands Friday morning, Nov. 26, when the Joliet Association of Commerce presents its annual Christmas Parade at 11 a.m. It will be the largest, most spectacular Christmas parade in this area's history.

In it will be giant balloons ranging up to 110 feet long depicting exciting and colorful scenes and characters known and loved by all children. There will be Santa Claus, an igloo and characters from the Arctic regions, such as well-known characters from "Alice in Wonderland" as Jack Pumpkinhead, the tin woodsman, the strawman, the cowardly lion, March hare, Cheshire Cat, Humpty Dumpty, the Mock Turtle, Walrus, and a score of others. Local children will take part in the parade, depicting Alice in Wonderland, Queen Ozma, and also leading the giant rubber balloons. Several marching bands are also included in the colorful parade. This same parade marched down State street in Chicago last year and has drawn crowds upwards of 100,000 in such cities as Charleston, S.C., Shreveport, Houston, and others. The Joliet Association of Commerce had to sign the contract for this parade November of last year as another indication of the popularity and excellence of the parade.

Music will be provided by several of the area's fine grade and high school bands. A boy on horseback will herald the coming of the wonderland balloon sections.

Frankfort PTA Settles Roller Skating Question.

The spirit of music prevailed at the Nov. 10 meeting of Frankfort PTA. Art Lambrecht opened the program by leading the group in a series of familiar old songs, after which Mrs. Glenn Ferrell conducted the regular business meeting.

First on the agenda was the issue of roller skating, which has been much discussed of late. It was decided that each person buy their own skates this year, Mr. Utte to have charge of each week's skating session, for a fee. Adventures in Music, presented by the Frankfort school band, afforded relaxation for the PTA group. Frankfort has a band enrollment of 21 members, but, according to Director Reed, unless something is done to encourage new members to join, the band will be non-existent within two years. Those who heard the splendid performance given by this group were convinced that everything possible must be done to keep the band going.

Fourth grade won the room award the month. The grade school faculty acted as hostesses for the social hour which followed the meeting.

Farmer Has Fingers Broken When Corn Picker Gets Clogged

Carl Schiffler, 21, was operating a corn picker on his father's farm on Willow Road in New Lenox township, north of Route 7, last Friday about 4 p.m., when the machine became clogged with a corn stalk. Carl reached out with his right hand to grab the stalk and pull it out, but the mechanism drew his hand right in.

While still sitting in the driver's seat Carl managed to get the corn picker apart and remove his hand, which was badly lacerated and his index finger was mangled. Then he walked to Hedges Clinic in Frankfort, where it was discovered that five bones were broken in three fingers. He was taken to Silver Cross hospital where he underwent surgery to have the broken bones set.

Carl is doing nicely, and if there are no complications he expects to return home tomorrow, Friday.

TO OPEN NEW SUBDIVISION IN MOKENA

It was announced today by Robert Fredin, of the Fredin Construction Co., New Lenox, that Brightwood, a new major development comprising over 200 large homesites, will be opened shortly - a new brightspot on Mokena's horizon, Mr. Fredin says.

The property is the Andrew Cappel farm on Mokena's west side. This property, said Mr. Fredin, embodies all the natural characteristics so vital for fine residential development. These include such things as its proximity to Mokena's fine church, schools, transportation and shopping facilities, all within 1/2 mile, and the high rolling terrain of the land which affords a view of the countryside that actually extends for many miles.

Another feature of this land is its beautiful stand of timber consisting mainly of oak, maple and other hard woods. This property, said Mr. Fredin, will not be just another subdivision but a well planned and properly handled residential area consisting of 1/2 to 3-acre tracts with sensible restrictions and good hard surfaced roads. These facts, along with the natural beauty of the land, are expected to culminate in a perfect blend of country living and city convenience.

A survey of the property is underway, and Hillgate road, the first of Brightwoods' winding streets, is already under construction. Sale of the property to the public will begin shortly. As the public is also being extended to any local builders who might be interested in participating in this project.

Old Sol Flirts With November's Mercury

Here's one for the book," or for Ripley. Believe it or not, the temperature in Mokena at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoon was a cozy 72 in the shade. Everybody was taking a marvelous about this beautiful day, which along with six or eight of its predecessors in a row, tossed into the discard the poet's lines about November which all of us remember from our school days: "the melancholy days are here."

In addition to the record warmth, the sunshine has been unusually brilliant for this time of the year, when, if there is any sunshine at all, it is quite strained and thin. It was brilliant enough for outdoor color photos! And what color there is around us, in field and woods!

The lovely Indian summer weather, which has possibly established a record for continuity, has been ideal, in one sense, for pheasant and rabbit hunters, who have taken to the field in this area in great numbers, and with considerable success, although many hunters prefer a more rugged type of weather with possibly an inch or two of snow on the ground for tracking.

At any rate, such weather as we have been having this month atones for a melancholy October, and, if it is to be surpassed, will tax the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Mokena Pupils In Piano Recital

Mrs. Esther Field Davies, piano instructor will present a musical tea in the Richard Street Methodist church, Joliet, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 21 at 2:15 o'clock.

STRAY RIFLE BULLET HITS GIRL IN LEG

Sharon Baker, 7, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Werner, was slightly injured by a stray rifle shot fired from the gun of a pheasant hunter, last Saturday morning, about 10 o'clock.

Sharon was playing in the back of the Werner home on Wolf Road in Mokena with some other children, when the accident happened.

A father and his son, about 10 or 12 years of age were hunting in a nearby corn field when a rifle shot, fired by the boy, hit a rock in the Werner back yard and ricocheted, hitting Sharon on her leg. The bullet merely grazed Sharon's leg, ripping through her slacks, and leaving a faint trace. The skin was not broken. The children screamed, whereupon the man and the boy, who were unidentified, came over to see what happened.

They were very sorry, of course, but this could have been a serious and possibly a fatal accident, instead of just an incident. To avoid just such dangers hunting is not allowed within the village limits. After learning that there was no serious injury, the boy and his father left.

The children who had been playing in the Werner back yard, and who were endangered by the careless hunters were, Nancy Long, Wayne, David and Sharon Baker, and Warren, Wendell and Francis Bormet.

Hoosier Poet Sings Praises Of New Lenox Press

Caroline Bentley, of New Lenox, has submitted to this paper a poem which her Uncle Henry Agate, of Topeka, Ind., wrote to her. In this poem Mr. Agate, who is 86 years of age, expresses his appreciation of the New Lenox Press. Miss Bentley says her uncle frequently sends poems in answer to her letter. He seems to have done pretty good with this one:

To The New Lenox Press - Greetings!
(The Community Paper, Complete News of the Week) A classified ad page read by both buyer and seller. Worth the price of the paper, even more to some.

It's just a 10-page paper, But give it all its dues, It's read by all the country round - The old New Lenox News. (Press) It tells of weddings, birthdays, deaths, Or whatever you have in store. The happenings gleaned each week, Picked up from door to door. Our schools are not forgotten. The churches get their score. The advertising columns read. The autos told of on their floor. The stores, they get their weekly inch.

They tell of goods in stock. The Press has all-important news, From all around each block. Let none therefore deride it, Let none its fame abuse, For it's a booster for our town - The Communities Press News. (From the pen of Henry Agate) Topeka, Ind.

Police Order Dogs Kept Away From Children At School

Like Mary's lamb, a great many dogs these days are following Mary and Billie and Jackie to school, and then hang around the school until the children come out, when they romp home with their little masters. Some of the children come to school on bikes, and the dogs know these bikes and set themselves up as guardians (or watchdogs) of the bikes.

This, of course, is commendable, but the difficulty is, the first and second grade children get out of school a half hour earlier than the others, and some of these children have bikes, too. When they try to take their bikes they are in trouble with some of the dogs, who nip at them and otherwise frighten the children from taking their own bikes.

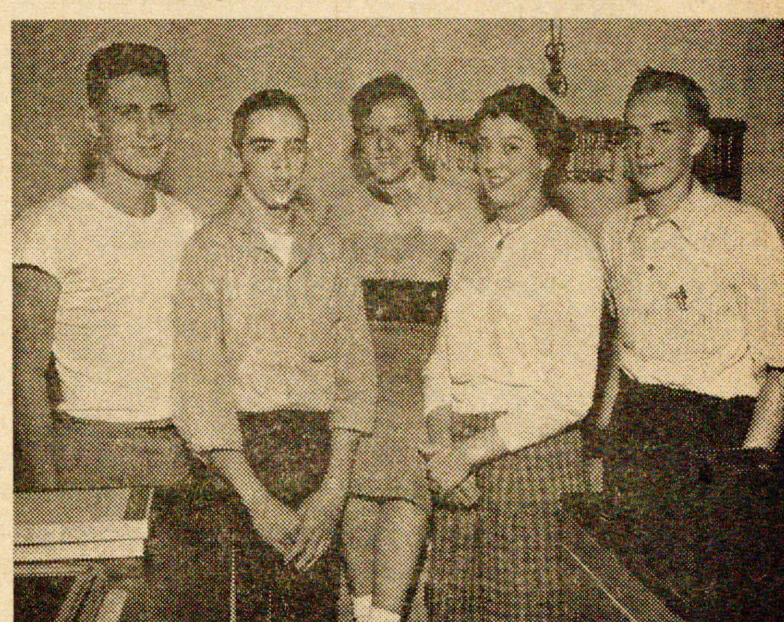

To relieve this situation, the Mokena police chief has issued notice to the effect that dogs should not be permitted to follow their masters to school. If caught loitering around the school such dogs will be picked up and their owners will be fined.

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO FRANK WYTHX

Frank B. Wythx, 68, of Mokena, was stricken with a fatal heart attack near Marley, about 3:30 p.m. last Thursday. He was a special deputy sheriff and a special deputy conservation officer for the state of Illinois and had been under the care of a physician for a heart condition for some time.

Wythx had been driving along Maple road, according to information given to Coronor Blood and Deputy Sheriff John Shelley and Paul Lukanich. He stopped his car and got out to talk to three young hunters from the Chicago area. When he got back in his car and attempted to start it, the hunters told the coroner, he slumped over the wheel. The hunters summoned neighbors, after removing him from the car, and called the sheriff's office.

Mr. Wythx came to the United States from Lithuania about 60 years ago. He operated a livery business in the Chicago area for about 55 years, and upon his retirement about five years ago moved to Mokena.

Surviving are his widow, Alma, a sister, Edith, now Mrs. Peter Gusitis, of Phoenix, Ariz., and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held at the Blood and Grant Funeral home Monday afternoon, with the Rev. Wm. J. Reimann officiating. Interment was in St. John's cemetery, Mokena.

LAUFFER CROP HARVESTED BY GOOD NEIGHBORS

Another "Good Neighbor" deed occurred when friends went to the aid of their neighbor.

Following the tragic accident recently, in which Arthur Lauffer lost his life, and his wife was injured and hospitalized, the following men, neighbors, relatives and friends, went to the Lauffer farm, with their tractors, corn pickers, and wagons, and harvested the corn crop: Bernard Homering, Adolph Weiner, Edward Michkowski, Russel Lauffer, George Marti, Harold Cooper, Stanley Coe, Louis Marti, Nicholas Marti, Charles Lauffer, James Tilsy, Ralph Tilsy, Oliver Zuelle Riccardo Warner and son.

A bounteous dinner was served to these men at noon by Mrs. Stanley Coe, Mrs. Bernard Homering, Mrs. Edward Michkowski, Mrs. Irene Boland and Mrs. Iva Marti.

Mrs. Lauffer will always remember this kindness extended to her, in a time of great need.

Have Roaring Good Times At Mokena Lions Ladies Nite

There was a fine turnout at the Mokena Lions club's "Ladies Night" which was held at Little Jack's on Plainfield road, Saturday evening.

Night School On Business Subjects

About 40 students are taking business subjects at night school at Lincoln-Way. Typing rates at the top, with 25 adults enrolled. Many of these students are now working; however, they want to increase their skills in the subject or to get another skill to become more employable. Several are taking typing in order to get into the business world. One student was recently employed by a local concern in Joliet. Another student is awaiting the results of the Civil Service examination, taken a week ago. A few students are taking typing just because they feel that it will help them to know this one skill. It is the philosophy of the businessmen and educators that a student that can type has one practical skill that is usable in the business world. The typing classes are taught by J. Bryce Sardiga who is well-known in business circles for his speed and demonstration ability. He is featured in a film that brings the techniques of the speed typist to the class.

Another popular course at night school is the office machines. Here the students learn to operate various adding machines and calculators. This includes the latest equipment that is available and also that is used in the business offices in this vicinity. The comptometer is included. A skilled comptometer or calculator operator can commence with a salary of $75. Machine operators like typists are in great demand presently. There has never been an over supply of calculator operators. The field has been wide open for years.

This semester beginning and advanced typing, office machines, and shorthand are offered. Since these courses have been organized several adults have inquired about new courses. In January, another semester will commence. Those that are interested can call the office and place their names on the list. They will be notified when classes are organized.

It is the purpose of the business department to train the student for a job or to help re-train him on his present job.

VO AG CLASSES

The Agriculture classes of Lincoln-Way high school attended a demonstration of the new MM Corn picker-sheller in action and the new Aldrich dryer on the Forrester Lichtenwalter farm, west of Manhattan, recently.

The group traveled by school bus driven by Rollie Cagwin and was accompanied by their Agriculture teacher, Robert Van Rheeden.

Mr. M. Taylor, agricultural engineer, Public Service company, arranged the trip and discussed the operation.

Mr. Lichtenwalter explained to the group how easy it was for one man to handle the entire job. After picking and shelling the corn in the field in one operation, the corn is brought into the dryer. The moisture content of the shelled corn, right out of the field runs about 20 per cent. Mr. Lichtenwalter uses electric motors to operate his unloading elevators as well as his handling of the corn into the dryer and from the dryer into the bins.

While the corn is drying, the picker-sheller is getting another load ready. When the corn leaves the dryer, the moisture has been reduced to about 13 per cent which is sufficient dry for safe bin storage.

The found meal bins, that are used for storage of the shelled corn, and only half of the capacity that would be required for ear corn storage.

Records of the operation show that fuel costs for heating the air for drying the corn are less than two cents per bushel.

The agriculture classes enjoyed the demonstration tremendously and certainly appreciate the opportunity of seeing new things in farming.

With the opening game scheduled for Nov. 19, the two weeks practice sessions will demand much hard work before a starting team can be determined. Even though inexperienced the squad is showing an intense desire to win and there is strong competition for starting berths.

Evaluation of F.H.A. Week held November 1-6 was the main topic of discussion at the F.H.A. meeting Nov. 9, in the Home Economics room.

Doris Yunker, vice president, and Jean Bettenhausen are working on the program booklets which are to be completed soon.

Frankfort School News

By Donna Miller

Last week was National Education Week, when Frankfort parents and friends visited our school Friday afternoon. They observed children and teachers at work.

Luncheon was served for guests at close of school. Miss Lankenau explained the system of the new report cards during the luncheon.

We hope parents will make every week a visiting week, and try to visit us more often. All pupils are helping to fill Junior Red Cross Christmas boxes. Many fine contributions have been received.

The first graders made turkeys, cranberry and apple men with which to decorate their room. They watched movies Wednesday morning. Stephen Wright's birthday, Nov. 9, and Linda Duke's, Nov. 10 was celebrated with cupcakes for a treat.

With turkeys for decoration, the second graders have their room ready for Thanksgiving. The pupils made clocks for the telling of time and also a new aquarium. Patricia Burns celebrated her 7th birthday last week.

The third grade is making Thanksgiving decorations and are painting orange crates to make flower stands. Nov. 10, they drew pictures to records. Mrs. Howard Osmus, third grade teacher returned after being absent a week.

The fourth graders had their room gaily decorated with Thanksgiving scenes.

Thanksgiving decorations were a few of the decorations made by and in the fifth and sixth grade room.

The volleyball season closed Nov. 5 when the Frankfort girls defeated the Elwood girls in all three games.

Basketball season is now beginning. We would like to see a parent or two at our games. How about it Mom and Dad? Can't you arrange to come and cheer us on? We need your support.

National Education Week also being National Book Week, the eighth grade room was decorated with book covers from the new library books.

The Frankfort PTA is sponsoring roller skating in the Frankfort school gymnasium on Tuesday, starting with Tuesday, Nov. 23.

A special time from 6:30 to 7:30, will be allotted for beginners and those children up to and including sixth grade students. The floor will be cleared at 7:30 for teenagers and adults.

Refreshments will be available and a nominal fee will be charged.

The PTA points out that skating is a healthful and enjoyable exercise, and they hope that entire families will come to enjoy this opportunity for wholesome fun and relaxation.

Girl's Chorus Sponsors Dance

The freshman and sophomore girls' chorus of Lincoln-Way high school sponsored a dance, "Autumn Fantasy" Wednesday, Nov. 10. Tommy Noonan's orchestra played for dancing from 8 to 11:30 p. m. in the school gym. Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

Chaperons for the evening were Robert Taylor, Robert Van Rheaden, Jane Gillogly, Jonas Lashmet, Howard Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Young, Mr. and Mrs. Schleuter and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tryon. Mrs. Tryon is director of choral music at Lincoln-Way.

Bert Fulton School News

On the second of November the second grade classes were visited by two teachers from the primary school in Palos Park, District 118. We were very happy to see them and hope they enjoyed their visit with us.

The new room 106 has finally completed its mural. It is 3 separate scenes: Columbus and his ships sailing from Europe, the Pilgrims landing at Plymouth Rock, and the first Thanksgiving. We had a great deal of fun doing it, and hope everyone will stop and see it. We have also set up a small Indian and Pilgrim village in the classroom.

The boys and girls are eagerly looking forward to American Education Week when their parents will come to school to see their study. We have many papers and books to show our parents the nice work we are doing.

Three new pupils have enrolled in the Bert Fulton School.

All of the rooms are sending out invitations for the parents to visit their school during American Education Week. We hope you will come and watch the children do their daily tasks.

Armistice Day will be a school holiday.

Bremen High News

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness," Benjamin Franklin once said, and he often is quoted by members of the Bremen high school department of health and physical education.

Concentrating on carry-over to adult life, the department has set up a graded program for the students in their four year stay at Bremen.

As freshmen, both boys and girls are taught the importance of body care. They are required to take a shower each day and wear clean clothing. Twelve weeks are devoted to classroom study of health. Big muscle activity is stressed in the first year.

When the students are sophomores, they enjoy straight physical education and are introduced to athletic skills. Included in these skills are: basketball handling, throwing a football, tumbling, wrestling, and playing softball and volleyball.

First Aid is taught during a six week period in the junior year, and outstanding students are eligible for certification by the Red Cross. Pupils continue working on advanced athletic skills.

Adult sports are played in the senior year. Seniors participate in shuffle-board, ping-pong, badminton, volleyball, and handball.

The Girls' Athletic association, which is active throughout the year, and the intra-mural program are sponsored by the health and physical education department.

John Diehl, chairman of the department, says, "The State recommends 200 minutes of physical activity per week, and we do just that. Our program serves a two-fold purpose: students get a chance to release their emotions and surplus energy and at the same time learn activities which develop them mentally and physically."

"The knowledge of health and physical education is well-rounded when they graduate from Bremen."

Bremen Community High School

Thirty Bremen high school senior social science students recently visited the United States federal court and post office in Chicago.

In winding-up a unit on the federal government and all of its branches, Theodore Nelson, chairman of the social science department, arranged for the class to see its government in operation.

Besides seeing a grand jury room and being informed of the procedure involved, the group attended an actual court trial.

Later in the day students ate lunch in the cafeteria of the world's largest post office. Officials guided the group through the building and explained its operation.

To conclude the day's activity Mr. Amen, head of the narcotics division of the Secret Service, spoke on narcotics.

In evaluating the field-trip, Mr. Nelson stated, "The trip was of great value and importance in bringing out certain points studied in the classroom."

Career Conference At Sandburg High

A Career Conference to be held Nov. 18 at 7:30 p. m. will be another one of the Student Personnel Services offered by the guidance department of Carl Sandburg High school to aid students in planning their post-high school educational and vocational programs. These Student Personnel services are available to all students of the school.

The director of guidance, Tom Hansen, and one of the girls' counselors, Miss Ruth E. Bardwick, have recently completed administering to all students a testing program which is in its second year of operation.

In this testing program freshmen are administered an interest inventory and a test of mental ability. Sophomores undergo no systematic program of testing. The juniors, however, are given the complete Illinois High School Testing Battery which is sponsored by the University of Illinois.

Seniors are again administered an interest inventory so that the results of it may be compared with that given to them as freshmen. They also receive the American Council on Education Psychological examination for high school seniors - a test similar to that given to freshmen in most colleges and universities.

Other special testing is done individually as the need presents itself.

The school has as part of its main library an Educational - Vocational library wherein much information pertaining to vocations and colleges and universities is made available for the use of all students.

Once testing results are known, they are combined with other data in the student's file so that a rather complete picture of a student's ability, interests and limitations can be made and interpreted to him in personal counseling sessions.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCES CHURCHES

How the spiritually correct view of God and man destroys anxiety and restores peace of mind will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday, November 21, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body."

Scriptural selections include the following from Psalms (42:11): "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (390:4-9):

"We cannot deny that Life is self-sustained, and we should never deny the everlasting harmony of Soul, simply because, to the mortal senses, there is seeming discord. It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle."

Basketball Coach At Sandburg Says "Chances Are Good"

Basketball time is here again and according to John Jorstad, athletic director and head basketball coach at Carl Sandburg, this year's team will have "more height and speed than last year's."
Returning lettermen from last year's varsity team are John Spidel and Don Gee while returning reserves are Ernie Kanak, Jerry Miller, and Dick Anderson. Besides having additional height and speed, Coach Jorstad believes "although the other conference teams have improved, our chances are very good."

Why Agriculture Census is Of Value To The Farmers

The Census of Agriculture is taken at 5-year intervals to provide reliable and up-to-date statistical information about the more than 5 million farms on which a nation of more than 165 million people depend for food and raw materials for the manufacture of goods. In large part, the efficiency of American agriculture depends on this information.

The Census of Agriculture data provide the foundation for the agricultural statistics.

The federal government, congress and the executive agencies use the information to develop and administer farm programs.

Crop and livestock reporting services and other statistical activities of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, which provide estimates on farm industry trends that guide farmers, the government and others in their decisions, depend on the census.

State and local agencies, farm organizations and others serving the farmer use the census data in their analyses of the farm situation in their areas.

Manufacturers and marketers use the statistics to measure resources for agricultural raw materials and, conversely, to determine the farmers' needs for machinery, supplies and services which farmers buy for efficient farm operations.

Newspaper promotion departments, advertising agencies and advertisers of products and services used by farmers and farm families study agricultural statistics for counties and other areas in laying out campaigns designed to reach potential customers.

Bankers and other financial services employ agricultural census statistics in evaluating conditions and factors which govern their decisions on farm credit for the areas they serve.

Farmers themselves apply census data to their problems, although these data usually come to them indirectly through many different channels of information. Statistics published in farm periodicals, in reports of marketing services, in radio farm information programs, and in other media that influence the farmer in making important decisions are taken either direct from census reports or are based on them.

The information supplied by each farmer is treated as confidential by the Census Bureau and assurance is given that the information will be published only in statistical totals for each county so that operations of an individual farm are not revealed.

The Census law requires the farmers to supply the information officially requested by the Census Bureau but also provides that this information cannot be used for taxation, regulation or investigation. The Census enumerators, in taking their oaths of office are sworn not to reveal the information obtained from the farmers and the law provides severe penalties including fines and imprisonment if the confidential restrictions are violated.

COOKING COKE

A cook can manage, whether gas, coal, electricity, or wood fire heats his pan, but steel mills must be more particular about fuel, and the coke going into the blast furnace along with the iron ore must be made from bituminous coal.

More than one-quarter million tons of bituminous coal was produced last year in Virginia by auger mining methods where large drills, some 6 feet in diameter, bore into exposed coal seams to bring out the fuel.

MOUNTED PLOWS

first choice for better farming

For WD and WD-45; 3-bottom Mounted Plows in 12-, 14- and 16-inch sizes; for CA 2-bottom Mounted Plows in 12- and 14-inch sizes.

The trend is to mounted plows and Allis-Chalmers "built-on-the-square" design is a symbol of good farming as well as great strength. Free-Swinging from a single hitchpoint the plow follows contours naturally . . . high clearance helps you cover trash . . . natural line of draft assures uniform plowing depth.

Tough, spring steel frame and beams are set at right angles to each other and rigidly braced. No other design gives you so much resistance to twisting, springing or misalignment. Triple-strength shares— $\frac{3}{4}$ in. thick, with up to 20 percent more metal, give you correspondingly longer wear.

HIGH NICKEL ALLOY PRODUCTION

The production of high nickel alloys at the rolling mills of International Nickel in the United States and the United Kingdom continued to expand in response to defense requirements during 1953. In these countries and Canada there were broad applications of the Nimonic and Inconel series of nickel-chromium alloys in components of both jet and reciprocating aircraft engines. Monel, a nickel-copper alloy, in industry in approved uses, and Inconel continued to be used Incoloy, a nickel-iron-chromium alloy, found continued demand for use in heat-resisting applications.

Six billion horsepower is the total capability of U. S. prime movers, the engines which initially turn the energy of coal, oil, atoms and other natural resources into motive power for this country.

Although U.S. bituminous coal production currently is well below the peak years of the late forties, mine output today averages 700 tons a minute, every hour of the day, every day in the year, and is unequalled anywhere in the world.

The Norfolk and Western Railway, whose locomotives burn coal 100% has been hauling bituminous coal from its tri-state field for over 70 years, and last year hauled 42,038,617 tons, 773 times as much as its first year's haul in 1883 of only 54,399 tons.

Let me take your Long Distance call now. It'll go through quickly . . . and look how low rates are!

Typical low Long Distance rates (not including 10% Federal tax) for the first three minutes, station-to-station, 6 p.m. to 4 a.m. weekdays, or all day Sunday. For rates to weekdays, or all day Sunday. For rates to other out-of-town places, see the introductory pages in your telephone directory.

"Detroit, Michigan, WOODWARD 2-9999." Then tell her your own number when she asks for it. Remember, service is faster when you call by number. (Would you like a free Blue Book for listing your frequently called numbers, including those of out-of-town friends and relatives? Just call us and we'll gladly send you one. Or you can pick one up next time you're near any Illinois Bell Business Office.)

Here's Another Tip

Calling a number by Long Distance is known as a "station-to-station" call. It's less expensive. But to be sure of catching a particular person at home, you can place a "person-to-person" call. For example: "I want to speak to Mr. Peter Stewart at Detroit, Michigan, WOODWARD 2-9999." The rate is higher but when you want to find that particular person, it's worth it.

Right now— isn't there someone miles away who'd like to hear your voice? All you need do is pick up your telephone . . .

Your wife works this hard every washday—

WHY?

AN ELECTRIC DRYER TAKES THE WORK OUT OF WASHDAY..yet costs only $1⁹³ a week to own!

Feel a crick in your back, Mister? Think of your wife! She struggles with an 87-pound load of wet wash every week.

Why? Why should she . . . when an electric dryer costs only $1.93 a week?

A dryer really makes washdays fast and easy. It tumbles the clothes gently in warm-air breezes (the air's heated electrically—cleanest, driest, fastest way there is). Most clothes come out ready to put away, so ironing time's cut in half. And there's no fading . . . no rain spots . . . no soot.

See the new electric dryers at your nearby appliance dealer's or our store. Make the $5 and $10 down payment that puts one in your home. Then, brother, get set to be kissed like you haven't been in a long time!

Breeze through washday! An electric dryer gets clothes looking and smelling fresh as sunshine . . . and without fading!

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Alert Citizens To Serious Situation In School Finances

Parents and teachers are joining forces in a concerted effort to save the public schools of Illinois. The Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Illinois Education Association have organized a joint committee which will attempt to alert all citizens to the serious school finance crisis that threatens to cripple and destroy the public schools.

The committee, organized at the suggestion of Mrs. Newton P. Leonard, president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, will also consider general program plans, legislation, public relations problems, and research. Mr. Edward H. Stullken, principal, Montefiore school, Chicago, is the chairman. Bertrand L. Smith, superintendent, Oak Park elementary schools, is serving as secretary.

The committee has designated the month of November as "School Crisis Study Month." It is urging every community in the state to study the effects of state and local finance upon its schools.

In addition the committee is encouraging each community to communicate with the governor and the general assembly by working through the local school administration and parent-teacher groups.

Girl Scout News
Mrs. Walter Yunker and Mrs. Norval Robinson, leaders of troop 136 took the girls to the Mum show at Pilcher park last week. Mrs. Donald Ambuehl, Mrs. Rudolph Englehardt and Mrs. Thomas Everhardt furnished transportation for the 19 girls who attended. The troop is selling Girl Scout calendars. They made pixie book markers and have brought leaves to meetings to press.

Girl Scouts of troop 107, led by Mrs. Fred Lehman and Mrs. Arthur Shoon, went on a cook-out to the Mokena park Veterans' Day. They walked in the woods before lunch and Mrs. Shoon pointed out several kinds of trees which are easy to identify now that the trees are bare. Especially funny one was the shagbark hickory. They roasted frankfurters and marshmallows at noon and were surprised to hear shots ring out about 10 minutes after 12 — hunting season was on!

A hayrack ride was enjoyed by troop 42 last Friday. 12 boys and 12 girls met at the school and Russell Lauffer drove them around country roads on two

TAX FACTS

By George Mahin, Executive Secretary
Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

A strike by school maintenance workers in Decatur, the first strike by public employees since public notice was given last June that the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois intended to take legal action if taxpayers' interests were adversely affected by such strikes, was nipped in the bud by a court injunction resulting from prompt action by the Decatur school board.

Maurice Scott, attorney on the Taxpayers' Federation staff, was sent to Decatur to investigate the strike to determine whether action by the Taxpayers' Federation was necessary. He reported that Circuit Judge Martin Morthland had issued the injunction on motion by the school board the same day this strike started, on the ground that strikes against the government, including local governments such as schools, are illegal — the same position taken by the Taxpayers' Federation in its bulletin last June.

George Mahin, Taxpayers' Federation executive secretary, praised the Decatur school board for its prompt and decisive action in seeking the injunction against the striking school employees, and Judge Morthland for his prompt and impartial ruling.

The Decatur school board and Judge Morthland have earned the appreciative backing not only of all Decatur citizens but of all the people throughout the state," Mahin said. "Strikes by public employees must be stopped. If the governing bodies of other local governments in Illinois will only have the courage to follow the example set for them in Decatur, it will not be necessary for the Taxpayers' Federation to vet into the act. However, let there be no mistake about it, the Taxpayers' Federation means business."

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and drive the new "Turbo-Fire V8!"

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123."
